Confusable words

'affect' and 'effect'

affect (verb)

Definition: to change or influence something

Use syllables and phonemes to decode and encode:

Use morphemes to comprehend:

Climate change will affect sea levels.

effect (preposition)

Definition: the result or impact of something that has happened

Use syllables and phonemes to decode and encode:

Use morphemes to comprehend:

ef	fect
ef = 'out'	facere = 'to do'
(from Latin)	(from Latin)

ef + fect = the result of something being done

The effect of rising sea levels will be flooding.

For more information please visit phonicbooks.co.uk.